Fishing Rodeo To Be Held at Lake, July 18

The Seventh Annual Fishing Rodeo, conducted by the Prince Georges County Recreation Department, will be held Thursday, July 18, from 10 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. at Greenbelt Lake. Over 600 youngsters from summer playgrounds in the County are expected to attend and participate in the day's activities.

Fishing for all as well as four contests are included in the day's activities. Prizes will be awarded in three age divisions, 8 to 9 years, 10 to 12 years and 13 to 16 years for the longest fish caught, and the most fish over five inches caught.

Youngsters will compete in two age divisions, 12 and under and 16 and under in a casting contest the most original home-made lure.

The Huck Finn and Becky Thatcher contest is open to boys and girls of all ages.

Majorette Chairman Urgently Needed

The Labor Day Festival's Majorette Contest is in need of a chairman. Last year's chairman, Mel Marion, is under doctor's orders not to undertake the task. She will, however, be available for consultation to the new chairman. In fact, there are quite a few individuals who have helped in the past and can be depended upon to help in the future.

The need for a chairman is not only critical but also very urgent. Mrs. Marion has completed much of the preliminary work but there is much more to be done in the limited time remaining.

Any one interested in this job should contact Mel Marion, 474-6126, or E. Don Bullian, 474-8746. There will not be a baton twirling contest in the Festival unless a volunteer comes forward by this week end.

Teen Club News

The Shipwreck Dance held at the Youth Center last Friday was a big success. An enjoyable time was had by all who attended. The general conduct of the participants was outstanding.

The Teen Club is sponsoring a one-day trip to Ocean City, Maryland, on July 27. Persons interested in this trip may pick up permission slips at the pool from Miss Mary Matilda Barcus. Slips must be returned prior to boarding the bus. Registration is open to members until July 19, after which it will be open to non-members and guests. The price will be $3.50 for members and $4.50 for non-members and guests.

The Splash Parties have been well received by the youth of the City and as usual the Teen Club will sponsor a Splash Party this Friday night from 8:30 until 10:30 for young adults 12 - 19.

Recreation Review

by Richard Stevenson

Last Saturday, the Greenbelt Babe Ruth League All-Stars played the Prince Georges County All-Stars at Andrews Air Force Base. Our Greenbelt All-Stars were victorious 7-6. Robert Nuzzo pitched shutout baseball for the last 3 innings. Doug Brautigam hit a home run. This Saturday, 6 p.m. on Braden Field, the All-Stars will play Arlington County.

We are in need of volunteers to help in all phases of water pageantry, swimming, diving, programing, etc. Are you a local swimmer between the ages of 7 and 17? Are you free between 8 and 9 a.m. and/or 11:30 and 12:30 a.m.? Your swimming team needs you! Please leave your name and phone number with the cashier at the swimming pool. What the present group lacks in size it makes up in enthusiasm. Two meets have already been held, both in the Greenbelt pool - the first against Rosemary Apartments (which Greenbelt won), and the second against a superior Andrews Air Force team which Greenbelt lost by a surprisingly close score. Coach Tom Hieber was dunked after the win and given a surprise birthday party after the loss. There is a need for swimmers in all events. The team will meet its arch rival, Takoma Park, this Saturday, June 20, at 9 a.m. in Greenbelt pool.

The Tennis Tournament will begin at 9 a.m. Friday, July 19, on the tennis courts.

Ballet registration will be held in the Youth Center, Monday, July 22, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Classes will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, beginning Tuesday, July 30. Age: 5 and up.

It will be the Greenbelt Babe Ruth League vs Frederick at Brunswick for the State Playoffs Wednesday, July 24.

CITY NOTES

City Manager James Giese reports that there will be a public hearing on July 24 before the Prince Georges County Planning Board on an application to rezone seventy-six acres on the east side of Kenilworth Ave., near Greenbelt Rd. A building firm wishes to erect high-rise apartments on this tract which is now zoned RR (rural residential). The Greenbelt city council is opposed to any change in the present zoning.

At the same meeting an application will be considered to rezone part of the Boxwood subdivision from RR to R55 (single family units). The city council has not taken a position on this as yet. Such rezoning would not affect present plans to donate part of Boxwood to the city of Greenbelt as a park area.

The Board of County Commissioners will make final decisions on both of these applications.

Black and White Show

Eight photographers are represented in the current "Black and White Show" of the Arts and Crafts Guild at Twin Pines. B. G. Fonda, Vic Boswell, Jacob Warner, Nicholas Pergola, A. Tsunoda, J. H. Forbes, Paul Kasko, and George E. Hall are exhibiting a total of 55 photographs. Barbara McGee, Jack Dillinger, and J. H. Forbes have contributed woodcuts, engravings, lithographs, etchings, and dry point drawings to round out the show, which is open to the public.

Toastmasters To Meet Here

The Jawsmith Toastmasters Club of Bladensburg, Md. will visit the Greenbelt Toastmaster Club on Tuesday, July 23 in the Greenbelt Co-op Hospitality Room at 8 p.m. Visitors are welcome.

WARNING

The Maryland Optometric Society warns against viewing the impending solar eclipse on July 20 with the naked eye.

A partial eclipse of the sun will be visible from the Washington area beginning at 4:42 p.m. EDT Saturday if the skies are clear. The eclipse will last until 6:52 p.m. EDT. At the time of maximum coverage here, roughly 82 per cent of the sun's face will be obscured by the moon.

Observers should not use telescopes, binoculars, sunglasses or any other type of glasses to see the eclipse; telescopes and binoculars trained on an eclipse are particularly dangerous. They magnify and intensify the burn.

Most people, ESPECIALLY CHILDREN, don't realize that less than one second's exposure to the direct rays of the sun can, under some circumstances, cause permanent blindness. There isn't even necessarily any immediate sensation of pain before the damage is done.

Unfortunately, there is no immediate hint of danger. First symptoms of damage to the eye may come several hours or a day after exposure. It causes a change in the shape of objects and the injured person sees with a reddish tinge.

If you want to view the eclipse, the optometrists suggest the use of a pinhole device which avoids the harmful infra-red rays. It can be made by punching a clean hole with a pin through a piece of cardboard.

The viewer should turn his back to the sun, hold the punched cardboard over one shoulder and let the sun rays come through the hole onto another piece of white cardboard. The sun's image is thus reflected on the white cardboard with no damage to the viewer's eyes.

The Optometric Society emphasized that no attempt should be made to view the eclipse through the pinhole itself. It simply intensifies the damage.

The National Society for the Prevention of Blindness has also suggested viewing the eclipse by the cardboard reflector method, adding that there is no safe way to observe the sun directly and, therefore, the safest method is to "watch the eclipse over television."

MILTON BERLE AT SHADY GROVE

Milton Berle, one of the all-time greats in show business, will make his first summer stock appearance when he stars in the musical smash "Top Banana" at the Shady Grove Music Fair, July 16 thru 21. Theatre is located at Shady Grove Rd. exit of U.S. 240 between Rockville and Gaithersburg, Md.

GHI Board Reverses Approval of Addition, Pending A Review

by Robert Philleo

The prolonged deliberations over the approval of a proposed addition to the residence of Earl Bragonje, 45-A Ridge, were momentarily halted at the regular meeting of the board of Greenbelt Homes, Inc. last Thursday.

The board voted 5-3 to suspend approval, pending a thorough review of policy concerning additions to homes. Voting for the motion were directors Charles Schwan, Henry Brautigam, Frank Lastner, John O'Reilly, and Hans Jorgensen. Opposed were directors Ed Burgoon, Bill Helm, and Joe Cherry. Harry Zubkoff, as presiding officer, did not vote.

The vote came after an opinion had been delivered by a board-selected architect, Mr. Kastner, rejecting the proposed addition as not in keeping with Greenbelt's original garden plan.

Bragonje had proposed to build a 52-foot-long combination carport and hobby workshop, connected to his house by a roof which would form a breezeway.

Athletic Scholarships Won By Caruso Twins

James and Lewis Caruso, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Caruso of 9-H Southway and graduates of High Point High School, June 1963, received athletic scholarships from Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah.

James Caruso during his senior year was nominated on the Prince Georges All-county First Football Team as Defensive End and All-county First Basketball Team by the News, Post, and Star. He was also nominated on the All-metropolitan Second Basketball Team by the News. His scholarship is in football.

Lewis Caruso, also a three-letter man, was Captain of the High Point High School Baseball Team which won the Prince Georges County Championship with a 14 to 2 record, and received his scholarship in baseball. He ended the season with a .477 batting average.

The Police Blotter

Numerous complaints were received last week regarding automobile vandalism. In two cases police found that cars had been slashed with pointed objects. Half a tank of gas was reported siphoned from a car belonging to a resident of Southway during the night. Police are also on the lookout for cars with noisy mufflers or defective headlights.

Two reports were made of juveniles setting off firecrackers on Northway and Parkway. Two youths were brought to police by a citizen who complained that they had been disorderly and had used profanity. The youths were released to their parents. A suspicious person was reported knocking on doors on Empire road. Although police searched the area, no one could be found. Two minor thefts involving the "yield right of way" sign at the intersection of Greenhill and Greendale roads and a lock from a garage on Ridge were also reported.

A bicycle was reported taken from the grassy area near the entrance to the pool last week. Another bicycle, unlicensed, was taken from Braden Field. This one was described as a 26" green English-type. A white-trimmed wagon was found on Center hill and turned out to police last week.

GHA Membership Meeting

Are you a Greenbelt member of Group Health Association?

A rare membership meeting of Group Health Association members will take place next Wednesday, July 24, at 8 p.m., in the Department of Agriculture auditorium in Washington - as a result of a petition of hundreds who are said to fear immediate loss of substantial member control.

Questions for the meeting include: "How are voting rights of all members to be safeguarded?" "Have recent mailings by management been used to keep membership substantially uninformed as to basic issues in the legally disputed recent referendum to replace the old by-laws?"

The board had originally approved the plans on June 13, despite a protesting petition by a number of court residents. A special meeting on June 27 heard the oral protests of the residents which centered around the location of the structure at the rear of the house, the relative size, the cinderblock construction, and lack of windows.

The board then proposed that the petitioners meet with Bragonje to negotiate a compromise solution. At the same time, the board decided to obtain an architect's opinion on the proposed structure.

Architect's Report

Last Thursday, the petitioners, and Bragonje reported little progress in their meeting. Mr. Kastner's opinion was a scholarly six-page treatise which ranged over a host of variables before flatly rejecting the proposed addition. The violation of the minimal open spaces needed to sustain the garden plan of Greenbelt appeared to be the chief factor in the architect's rejection of the structure. Kastner had been associated with the early design and planning of Greenbelt.

Directors Burgoon and Helm expressed concern about the architect's "undefensible statements" and "lack of specificity". The majority of the board, however, agreed that an architect's opinion had, indeed, been given.

The presentation of exhibits, both pictorial and statistical, by Bragonje and additional discussion by the audience and board made evident the need to reconsider the general policy and the procedural requirements for approval of additions. A motion by Schwan to suspend the original approval until the basic policy issues were resolved was passed.

Contempt of Court

A simmering feud between Gilbert Plumer, 26-A Ridge, and his neighbors, the board, and GHI management, again erupted on July 3 according to a report received by the board. Last year Plumer persisted in building and rebuilding a wire fence across the common walkway until enjoined by court order.

Recently Plumer erected wooden gates and 2 by 4's across the walkway. These gates were secured by bolts, the neighbors reported. GHI has requested its attorneys to secure a contempt of court notice. It was reported that the notice will be served within the week.

Maintenance

A proposed new format for the maintenance committee was offered by Schwan. Basically, a "committee of the whole" (exclusively board members) would assume responsibility for the "hard" issues confronting GHI. The decision was made to include other than board members and possibly to use ad hoc groups for individual problems, e.g. heating.

News Letter

Helm raised the issue of minority representation on the News letter Committee. The selection of Burgoon, Jorgensen, and O'Reilly for the committee was presented by GHI president Zubkoff on non-political grounds. It was pointed out from the audience that the principle of minority representation on all twelve committees would tax the endurance of the present bloc of two. It was voted that the GHI newsletter be published at least quarterly.

Book Circulation Increases

The Greenbelt branch of the Prince Georges County Memorial Library increased its circulation in fiscal year 1963 to over 50,000 books; it now stands fifth in circulation among the ten libraries in the county, according to Miss Elizabeth B. Hage, Director.

The county library now has a collection of 203,842 books, about a fifth of them earmarked for the county's first regional library, which will open in late fall at Adelphi and Toledo Roads in Hyattsville.

Registration Confusion

With the city council election just around the corner (September 17), it would be well to remind Greenbelters that the city elections are quite distinct from the Greenbelt Homes, Inc. elections, as well as from the county, state, and national contests.

A person must qualify separately to vote in each of these elections. Eligibility for the GHI elections or the county, state, and national elections does not qualify a person to vote in the city elections.

To vote in the city election, you must be a registered voter. Registration is automatic if you have voted in at least one of the two previous city elections. But be sure it was a city election. Many a prospective voter has showed up at the polls, convinced that he had voted "in Greenbelt" before, only to find out that it was a GHI election or a State or national election.

A citizen can register any day in the week by dropping in at the city offices during business hours (Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.) and asking to see the City Clerk. Registration closes August 19.

Qualifications? A citizen of the United States, at least 21 years of age, and a resident of Greenbelt for six months and of Maryland for 12 months at the time of the election.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor's Note:

Every now and then the News Review receives a letter to the editor which the author, for one reason or another, has neglected to sign. Some of these letters present valid points of view, worth discussing in the public forum which this newspaper provides to the community. Unfortunately, we cannot publish such letters unless we know who wrote them. We will, if requested, withhold the name of someone who wants to preserve his anonymity, but we must know the author in order to honor such a request.

MORE POLICE NEEDED

To the Editor:

While we are striving for a solution to the deterioration of law and order in the Center, let us not forget that basic to any solution is an increase in the number of police officers. Whether the council enacts an anti-loitering or curfew ordinance or not, this will be necessary to enforce the ordinance or control the situation.

During the budget hearings in June, the city council ignored the request of the Police Chief, and cut the increase in personnel in half. The council was either not familiar with conditions that existed in the Center, which indicates a lack of recognition of the problems of our City, or they were so blinded by the desire to cut the budget regardless of the consequences, that they ignored the facts, and acted in a manner that was not responsive to the needs of the community.

The situation in the Center did not develop overnight. The facts were available to anyone who took the trouble to look at them. If there is still some doubt, one only has to read the July 11 issue of the News Review. The Police Blotter covered over one and a half columns devoted to disturbances that occurred due to an inadequate police force, while in another article, the City Manager states that there is not sufficient manpower available to cope with situation.

Regardless of why the city council cut the Police Chief's request, remedial action must be taken immediately to correct this deficiency. I am sure that funds could be found either by a transfer of funds from some other account, or by borrowing against next year's taxes (as was done with the storm drain in Lakewood), to expand the police force to provide sufficient officers to control the situation. Let the city council act now, and not play politics with the safety of the residents or the protection of property.

Harvey Geller

EFFECTIVE TOOL

To the Editor,

We feel compelled to correct certain inaccurate rationalizations which were made in the letter to you, appearing in the July 4 issue of the News Review; and to advocate the anti-loitering ordinance which was to undergo its second reading at the council meeting on July 8.

It is our feeling that the Greenbelt Police force was subjected to, as a result of the above-mentioned letter, unjustified ridicule; and was accused of certain actions we believe it does not sanction.

We believe that it is the duty of all police forces not only to apprehend offenders, but also to quell possible crimes before they are allowed to take place. We also seriously doubt that any member of our police force would arbitrarily "annoy" anyone. If, however, he feels it necessary to disperse gatherings of teenagers whose presence would most likely result in the breaking of some law, he should have a legal ordinance to justify his actions. If this ordinance is not passed, his legal authority to dispel the group would be non-existent, and his duty could not be performed.

We agree that anyone has a right to spend time at the Center. However, this ordinance was requested by Chief O'Brien for the purpose of covering large gatherings of juveniles; not to hinder a single teen-ager or a family from enjoying our commercial center. It is for this reason that we, the under-signed, urge the City Council to pass the anti-loitering ordinance. We, as teen-agers, do not feel that the Council would be "fostering resentment" or "infringing upon personal liberty". Rather, they would be placing an effective tool in the hands of the Police Department, and would be insuring the safety of individuals and business establishments.

ACLU ROLE PRAISED

To the Editor:

I wish to comment on Mr. Joseph Hanyok's letter of July 11, 1963, in which he characterized the American Civil Liberties Union in highly inaccurate, inflammatory, and defamatory terms.

Since I was the citizen, unnamed by Mr. Hanyok, who was responsible for the presence at the Council meeting of Mrs. Selma Samols of the American Civil Liberties Union, I feel somewhat slighted that Mr. Hanyok placed a mantle of anonymity about me. After all, he knows me, since I have called upon him, when necessary to repair my TV sets and radios—a service he performs with great skill and integrity and I commend his work and recommend his services very highly.

But now to the matter at issue.

1. Since the American Civil Liberties Union representative was present at the request of a citizen of Greenbelt Mr. Hanyok was completely out of line in his unwarranted and hysterical charge that the ACLU had come into Greenbelt in order to carry on "lobbying" or "lobbying propaganda" activities.

2. It is certainly within the rights of a citizen of Greenbelt to bring to Council expert advice and analysis on any matter. It is even more relevant when that matter is one involving the Constitutional liberties of all the people. That it was possible for us to have the able presentation of the issues that Mrs. Samols presented before the Council ought to bring forth expressions of commendation rather than condemnation.

Had Mr. Hanyok exercised a minimum of tolerance and remained to hear Mrs. Samols' presentation I am sure that his untrained characterizations of the ACLU might possibly have been modified.

3. That Greenbelt citizens are capable of self-government is an issue only in Mr. Hanyok's mind. Surely he does not suggest that expert advice is never sought by our Council or by our City Manager. Greenbelt is still part of the United States and whether Mr. Hanyok likes it or not any proposed or actual legislation that would diminish the Constitutional rights and liberties of any citizen, though limited to Greenbelt, is of concern to all citizens. There is no wall around Greenbelt, thank God, and there are many Greenbelt citizens, (the vast majority, I am certain) who will fight any attempt to erect a wall.

4. Inviting expert advice is not "outside interference." There is no need to comment further on such arrant nonsense.

5. The American Civil Liberties Union is a "controversial organization" only to those who consider that the maintenance of our basic rights are "controversial." If these rights are a matter of controversy then, by all that is holy we need a "controversial organization" to help protect them.

6. I challenge Mr. Hanyok to describe the ACLU's concepts of our Constitution and government, and to name the "many, many fine Americans" who hold the ACLU's ideas of constitutional government to be "alien to the hallowed concepts of government by the people."

The only "fine Americans" I can think of who oppose the ACLU and its valuable public service to the people of our Nation, are such characters who want to impeach the Chief Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, who call ex-President Eisenhower a "conscious tool of the communists," who belong to the John Birch Society and organizations of similar ilk.

The not too subtle implication in Mr. Hanyok's letter that the ACLU is an organization subversive of our Constitution is a flagrant and deliberate violation of the truth. At the best, Mr. Hanyok's unfortunate hysterical outburst can be attributed to a complete absence of any knowledge of the 42-year history of the American Civil Liberties Union and to his acceptance of somebody's fanciful, distorted and psychotic views of objective fact in regard to the ACLU and the related issues of freedom and civil liberties under our Constitution.

Mr. Hanyok is much too nice to continue to be victimized by the crude and revolting fanatics of the "radical right," or the equally crude and revolting fanatics of the "radical left." Albert K. Herling

GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY

To the Editor:

You had your chance - you and the City Manager and the hallowed Council. What did you do when thirty youths, trying to act like adults, came up to the Council meeting some three-four weeks ago? Did you see your opportunity and applaud it that here were more than a score of youngsters trying to act responsibly? Were these youngsters encouraged to try to formulate and clarify their thoughts? They were not. You gave them the back of your hand and - crowning insult - told them to go home and bring their parents. You were too busy. Busy at what? Why confirming them in the opinion that all adults are their enemies - and stupid ones to boot.

Here was your golden opportunity and you muffed it. Out of this group you and our City manager might have found the nucleus of a good dozen solid teen-agers to rally a good young citizens' group around. But you were too busy, you and your precious Giese.

And what'll you do now? Why you'll turn the impossible problem over to the Police Chief. How dumb can you get? The Chief is an Enforcement Officer, but you're going to make him adventure into an area where Judges of many years' standing only venture with the greatest caution. He's going to have to interpret a law written by a group of admitted non-Solons. He'll have to interpret in the areas where wise public administration and city wide parental support is needed; all he'll get out of it is brick-bats, simply because it is not a police problem, but on the contrary is one for the whole community.

The City Council had better try to locate those youngsters and see what can be done to rectify the damage. Maybe it's still not too late to get a Young Citizens' Committee going. If it is, then I repeat, you've muffed it. M. Hoffman

A LAW TO VIOLATE?

To the Editor:

In answer to Mr. Robert A. Love's comments in the July 11 News Review, we offer the following observations:

(1) The verb "to loiter" was not defined in Mr. Love's letter, although he said that "sitting in the center for a while in the evening is not loitering". Webster's New World Dictionary of the American Language, concise edition, The World Publishing Co., 1960, defines the verb as:

1. to spend time idly; linger
 2. to move slowly and indolently, as with frequent pauses.
- v.t. (verb transitive) to spend (time) idly.

As we pointed out in our July 4 letter, sitting in the center is indeed loitering.

We will concede that the police would not apply the law strictly to those family groups and elderly persons who wish to spend idle time enjoying the pleasures of Greenbelt's center. This brings us to the second observation:

(2) A law passed with the intent of applying it to a certain group of individuals and not to all individuals is a discriminatory law. Its passage not only violates the American concept of "equality before the law", but also encourages disrespect for law. If the community wishes to break up a group which is offensive, it can pass laws against making too much noise, against obscene language in public, against attempted or actual vandalism. These laws would be obeyed by all the people, unlike the anti-loitering law which would be flagrantly and repeatedly violated by the aforementioned family and elderly groups.

(3) As our last point, we ask what the teen-age loiterers will do when they are chased from the center. Will they go home and quietly accept this treatment? Obviously not. Adolescents are social creatures and will reassemble elsewhere. In all likelihood they will be a little bitter and will make trouble somewhere else. The basic problem of evening activities for teen-agers is not solved by an anti-loitering ordinance.

It is a difficult problem to solve, for teen-agers will often shy away from organized activities. There are possible solutions, however, and we think not organized teenage activities but general community activities such as the Labor Day Festival are among them. There could also be weekly square dances in a blocked-off street to give this city some life, an excitement, which would interest teenagers at least part of the time and dissuade them from the excitement of lawbreaking.

We hope that Mr. Love will agree that our attitude is not one of sentimentality, but rather a desire to maintain respect for law and to attack delinquency in an effective way.

Mr. Walter R. Dean, 62-F Ridge, announces the marriage of his daughter, Kathryn, to PFC Darrell Nieman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nieman of Beltsville, Md. Father Victor Dowgiallo performed the ceremony on July 3 in St. Hugh's Rectory.

Nieman is stationed at Fort Benning, Georgia.

LET'S HEAR ALL ADVICE

To the Editor:

I am amazed at the reaction of Mr. Hanyok to hearing advice on a serious matter from a member of the American Civil Liberties Union.

He didn't object when a representative of the American Humane Society practically wrote our present ordinance controlling pets. Are our citizens less in need of expert advice and protection than our dogs and cats?

"Controversial?" For over 43 years ACLU has been protecting the civil rights of all citizens, regardless of race, creed, color (or age) and - in the process - it has been accepted as a valuable ally in the courts of our land, including - frequently - the Supreme Court.

No one denies the problem that exists or that a solution is necessary but in our zeal to control the few let us not penalize the many or put the added burden on each policeman of being judge and jury as well as arresting officer.

We would do well to hear, and to heed, all the expert advice we can.

Family Buying to be Studied

Questions on families' plans to buy automobiles, houses, and major household appliances will be asked in addition to regular monthly inquiries on employment and unemployment in the Census Bureau's Current Population Survey during the week of July 19, it was announced recently by Director John G. Gibson of the Census Bureau regional office at Philadelphia.

In April of this year consumers reported that they expected to buy about the same number of new cars, fewer used cars, and about the same number of new houses in the following 12 months as was the case in a similar survey made in April 1962.

Japanese Beetle Time

July is the month in which Japanese beetles are most numerous. According to Dr. George S. Langford, Maryland's State Entomologist, these pests usually begin to emerge from the ground about June 15, reaching their peak in July. After the first week in August they begin to decrease and disappear altogether in September.

Young Japanese beetles, or grubs, feed in the ground on plant roots, lawns, and pastures. Japanese beetles have good appetites and may be found feeding on over 275 different kinds of plants, especially roses. You can depend on them to find opening rose buds and begin their feeding operations there. Other favorite food plants include grape, sassafras, elm and plum. They are particularly fond of early ripening peaches and apples.

Generally speaking, Japanese beetles are so common that most people easily recognize them. You can be sure that the beetle you are dealing with is a Japanese beetle if it has a green head, a metallic-green thorax or neck, coppery-brown wing covers, and white spots around the edge of the abdomen.

What about control? Dr. Langford reports that there are now many effective sprays for killing adult Japanese beetles. One of the best is Sevin. Others that might be considered include Methoxychlor and DDT. "However," stresses Dr. Langford, "it should be remembered that regardless of the type of spray used, repeated applications are necessary." Where ripening fruit is involved, consideration should be given to the use of Malathion or Sevin. These sprays are effective and may be used up until a few days prior to harvest.

For further information on controlling Japanese beetle, send for a copy of University of Maryland Extension Service Leaflet 20, "Control the Japanese Beetle."

Peace Corps Exam July 20

A Peace Corps placement test will be administered on July 20 at 8:30 a.m. at 800 "E" St., N. W., Washington.

The non-competitive test must be taken by anyone interested in becoming a Peace Corps Volunteer. This will be the last testing opportunity for persons who hope to enter training for a Peace Corps assignment in September or October.

Those selected for training will spend 10 to 12 weeks on a college campus or at a Peace Corps camp in Puerto Rico, studying the language, history and culture of their host country, and American affairs.

Volunteers agree to serve two years in the Peace Corps, including training time. The minimum age for Volunteer service is 18. There is no upper age limit. Married couples may serve if they have no dependents and if both husband and wife qualify for the same project.

Language training is helpful for those interested in becoming Volunteers. Liberal arts graduates and others with a "general" education are preferred. But the Peace Corps also has requests for persons with skills in agriculture, public health, forestry, carpentry and other building skills, social work, and education of all types and at all levels. A college degree is not required.

The Peace Corps pays all of a

Volunteer's expenses and furnishes administrative support to him abroad. The Volunteer receives, at the completion of his service, a readjustment allowance of $75 for each month of satisfactory service.

The placement test which is to be given July 20 consists of a half-hour section on general aptitude and another of the same length on modern language aptitude.

Health Dept Offers Film About Nutrition

People often mistakenly attribute health problems to "something you ate" instead of to "Something You Didn't Eat," which is the title of a film offered by the Maryland State Health Department.

Produced by Walt Disney for the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the 9-minute animated color film points out that seven out of ten persons in this country have "weak links" in their diet because they are not eating a sufficient amount of the basic foods essential to good health.

Suggestions for planning nutritious and appealing meals are colorfully illustrated, and the health value of various foods is explained. Emphasis is placed on the need for well balanced daily meals for every member of the family. The seven basic foods necessary for development and maintenance of good health are listed as eggs, green and yellow vegetables, milk, meat, bread, butter and fruit; the importance of milk as a "skilled architect" in building strong and healthy families is stressed.

Health educators have found the film effective in past years, and it is particularly recommended to those planning school programs and to organizations working with young people.

The film may be borrowed without charge by Marylanders from the film library of Health Education Services, State Health Department, 301 West Preston St. in Baltimore.

How are they doing at Chalk Point?

PEPCO's new 670,000 kilowatt generating plant now building at Chalk Point, on the Patuxent River near Benedict, Md. is well on the road to completion. The building itself is now completely enclosed. Generating Unit #1 is proceeding rapidly. The turbo-generator is inside the building, and is now being assembled. The boiler is one-quarter of the way toward completion, and the stack for Unit #1 is starting to climb skyward. 136,000 feet (or 26 miles) of tubing are now being placed to complete the #1 condenser. It's a real picture of progress. When the first unit goes into operation next spring it will add 355,000 more kilowatts to PEPCO's generating capacity. A year later Unit #2 will add another 355,000 kilowatts. Together with our 4 existing generating plants, this new station will enable us to provide all the Electricity you need, wherever you need it, at lowest practicable cost.

The time of the year you're young

Before you're even half awake you know this day is different. The alarm clock went off all right (maybe even earlier), but your mood isn't the same. Instead of subconsciously splitting time into quarter-seconds: shower, shave, breakfast, paper, bus, office, you hear the birds singing. You watch a neighbor's kid playing with his dog.

All you have to do now is load the bags in the car. Today — you're on vacation.

Today you put the miles and the years behind you. Today you steer for a faraway horizon, to a time and place where all days are warm and sunny, all nights are cool, all women beautiful (your wife most of all), and you are young.

What do you take with you? A map, to be sure; a map that leads to misty mountains, to green lakes and a blue and talking sea. New duds for kicks and an old hat for luck. Well-worn playthings — the supple rod and the cool reel that feel so good beneath your hand; and something new always, for fresh skills should ever be learned. Books to pass the time . . . including a big one to read slowly and ponder and another to re-read for the fifth time over.

And finally — take along a mood for questing, a taste for adventure and a knowledge that a Shangri-La does exist for every man. Whether you find yours in an English lane, upon a Naples street or on a hidden Wisconsin lake, it's there, waiting for you, ready to say "Hey there, friend, you look young and carefree."

For the secret of a happy holiday is not miles or minutes run. It is serenity. It is peace of spirit. It is being young at heart.

Our Neighbors

by Elaine Skolnik - 474-6060

The sounds of children-chatter drifted through the window early Monday morning. A look outside revealed heavy pedestrian traffic headed toward the Center. My mind was still a bit fuzzy, but this condition was quickly remedied when my daughter burst into the room shouting, "I need two dollars to register!" From all reports the second session of swimming is once again a sell-out.

Yes indeed, Greenbelt youngsters are having themselves a ball this summer thanks to the fine programs offered by the Recreation Department. Assistant Recreation Director Richard Stevenson tells me that the response to the newly formed tennis and archery programs has been fantastic - 150 plus for tennis and 70 plus for archery. Dramatics for Teens, another innovation to the Greenbelt scene, promises to be most exciting. The program is co-ed, with meetings on Monday, Thursday, and Friday mornings. There's still time to sign up, so all interested teens call 474-6878. (By the way, no talent or experience is required.) Very successful this year are the Teen Club's splash parties which chalk up about 100 at each session. The club also has varied activities two afternoons and two evenings each week. Then there's the arts and crafts program averaging almost 100 youngsters daily, and we're all very proud of swimming team with its 52 swim stars of the future. Babe Ruth League boast 64 boys, Lassie League, 80, Little League, 150. I can go on and on, but what I really want to say now is "Thanks" to the Recreation staff and all the volunteers who are doing such a marvelous job in giving our Greenbelt youth a constructive, healthy, happy summer.

George Kaufman and Marchal Fuller, after finishing a frustrating second or third in the last three duplicate bridge sessions, finally finished first in last Friday's game. But it was not until after a struggle in which they eked out a 1/2 point margin over Sid Barnett and Jack Sanders. Next game: Friday, July 26.

Emergency Treatment For Chemical Poisons

Now that the spraying season has started for homeowners and enthusiastic gardeners, it is time that they should be informed or know where they can obtain information on emergency treatment for poisoning from agricultural chemicals.

Should poisoning occur, call a physician immediately. While waiting for the doctor to arrive, treat the patient with the antidote that is listed on the container. This is very important as it may mean the difference between life or death. If the label is missing and the antidote isn't known, contact the local poison control center. They are as follows:

Suburban Hospital
8600 Old Georgetown Rd.
Phone: OLiver 6-6000

Children's Hospital
13th & W St., N. W.
Phone: DUpont 7-4220, ext. 250
When using agricultural chemicals follow a few simple safety rules:

1. Use only recommended amounts shown on the container or in local Extension Service and U.S.D.A. bulletins.
2. Be sure to follow all precautions listed on the container.
3. When chemicals are not in use, keep the container tightly closed.
4. Keep out of reach of children.
5. Never store chemicals in unmarked containers.

6. Destroy containers when empty.

7. Destroy all leaking containers.

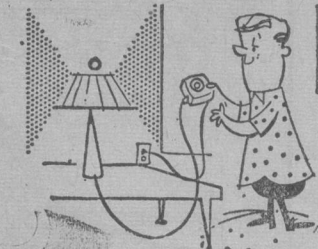

8. Be sure sprayers are cleaned out thoroughly after using them.

9. Never give anything by mouth to an unconscious patient.

For a listing of all antidotes for the major agricultural chemicals now in use, write to the County Extension Office, Court House, Upper Marlboro, Maryland, and ask for your free copy.

Tips On Preventing Burglaries

Connect Timer To Lamp

Leave a lamp or two connected to an automatic timer to turn lights on and off each evening. This makes the house look lived-in and is a good protective measure.

Lock All Doors

Be sure all exterior doors are securely locked. Use a pin-tumbler cylinder lock or safety latch.

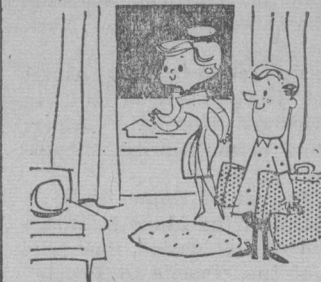

Stop Deliveries

Be sure to have your mail held and all deliveries suspended during your absence. Notify local police of the dates you'll be away.

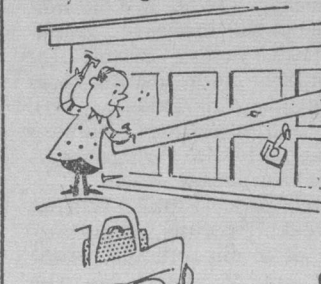

Prepared as a Public Service by the BURGLARY PREVENTION WEEK ADVISORY COMMITTEE, 11 S. Morgan St., Chicago 7, Ill.

Partly Draw Shades

Make certain that drapes or shades are not completely drawn. Leave them as you normally would when you are home.

Close Garage Doors

Always close your garage doors. An empty garage with doors open will catch the attention of any thief and indicate no one is home.

Put Away Tools

Never leave ladders or tools lying around where prowlers can get at them—they may be used to get into your home.

YELLOW PAGES
Success Story

Home improvement expert Bernie Hearn says...

"YELLOW PAGES ADVERTISING KEEPS MY VOLUME OF BUSINESS HIGH"

In 1950 Mr. Hearn was manager of the Johns-Manville Sales Corporation branch in Washington. Then he bought out the branch and renamed it "The Hearn Insulation and Improvement Company."

He's been busy ever since.

"Last year our 10 salesmen and 15 to 25 specialists were kept busy with various types of improvement and insulation jobs on over 2000 homes," he reports happily.

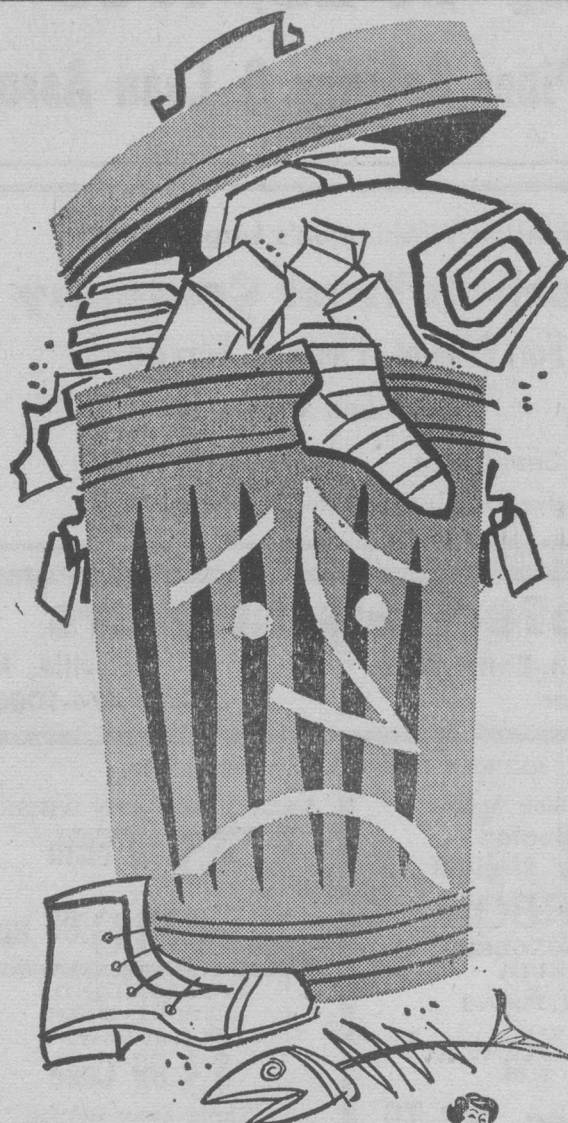

"Advertising is vital to my business. I depend on two media and one is the Yellow Pages. In my opinion, it's the one medium which is always available to the homeowner when he is ready to do something about home improvement projects he's been thinking about."

Yellow Pages advertising can help your volume of business, too. Many advertisers report that the Yellow Pages brings them several sales every day.

In the area you serve, the Yellow Pages carries your message into virtually every home and office. And your advertisement is never out of date. Prospects find you fast when they need your product or service.

Invest in success with Yellow Pages advertising. Call your C & P Business Office and ask for one of our Yellow Pages representatives.
